

Here at John Saunders & Son we want you to be able to choose the best package for you and your loved one and therefore we offer a wide range of options from the simplest dignified arrangement to something more complicated.

All funeral directors are legally required to publish a Standardised Price List for a standardised set of products and services, to help you compare prices between different funeral directors so that you can think through your options and make the best choices for you and your family.

This page and the link within it to our printable full price list is designed to provide you with as much information as possible about our services, packages and prices, but we understand that this is a difficult time and that information can seem bewildering during times of emotional distress. Our staff are therefore on hand to support you and to clarify and explain anything which is not clear, so please do telephone us if you would like to talk things through or to ask about anything at all.

Regardless of the options that you choose we would like to assure you that your loved one will be brought into our care from the place of their passing as soon as possible within the constraints of legal requirements and will remain on our premises with us for the full duration of their stay. We have only one branch and all of our facilities are located within that building.

Our range of packages and full prices are listed below with full details of what is included within each package:

TRADITIONAL FUNERAL
(Plus third party costs for burial or cremation see below)

From £2460.00*

This includes all of our professional fees for the care of your loved one; the administration of the arrangements; collection of your loved one from within a 15 mile radius of our premises within office hours (a greater distance and/or if out of hours will attract additional expense); a dark oak effect (foil) "Arran" coffin with 4 handles, elasticated frill and engraved name plate; your choice of date and time for the funeral (subject to the availability of all parties); dressing of your loved one in their own clothes; viewing in the chapel of rest (Monday to Friday 8.30am to 5pm); hearse to travel from the starting point of your choosing (20 running miles allowed); funeral conductor and 4 bearers on the day of the service; setting up a Memory Giving page for donations if required; care of your loved one's cremated remains if requested; our full support and guidance to help you throughout this distressing time. There are no additional charges if the funeral service and committal are held in separate venues on the same day, as long as the total distance does not exceed 20 running miles (in which case an additional mileage charge would be applied)

This example features our dark oak effect (foil) coffin, but if you would like an alternative then we have many choices with a variety of cost. For example our Cambridge (elm effect foil coffin with 6 handles and fitted trim) is £420, our Ardmour (a quality full veneer coffin in light oak with a flat lid) is £600.00 and our solid oak Barnard coffin with deep mouldings to the sides and ends with raised lid and a rich gloss finish is £1250.00). There are many other coffin types in between these costs, including a range of eco-friendly pandanus and willow options.

In addition to our costs you will have some third party costs. They may include the cost of a service in church (from £262.00 and dependent on the individual charges made by each church): a minister or civil celebrant (local average from £240.00 for a celebrant): for burial there will be fees for the cost of digging the grave and maybe a grave purchase (£1785 for a new single lawn grave and digging at The Vale Cemetery): use of The Vale Cemetery chapel for your service if you wish to use it (£120) and so on. If cremation is chosen then there will be the cost of the cremation itself (£1120 at Luton crematorium, from £880 - £1075 at North Herts crematorium in Hitchin) and there may well be additional costs of around £82.00 for the production of doctor's cremation paperwork which is payable to GP's or hospital doctors. We will ensure that these costs are paid to the correct authorities on your behalf.

We are completely committed to a non 'selling' approach when booking and arranging funerals. We believe that it is the small personal details that matter most and that these can be achieved with time and love rather than extravagant financial expenditure. To this end we can provide you with a written list of the proposed full costs for a funeral at any time and we will always give you clear options when arranging a funeral.

Deposit of the total of third party costs (and alternative hearse e.g. horse drawn if ordered) is due at time of making arrangements.
